

WEEDS AND MORE WEEDS – ALMOST EVERYTHING YOU WANT TO KNOW ABOUT WEEDS

Alan Martinson

Latah County Noxious Weed Superintendent

Description: What is a weed? What is a noxious weed? How can I find out what this plant is? How can I control weeds? What is Integrated Pest Management and how does it work? What are some common weeds in Latah County? Find out when we talk about weeds, and more weeds.

Biography: Alan Martinson has been the Latah County Noxious Weed Superintendent since 2003. He is a lifelong resident of the Palouse and graduated from Pullman High School and Washington State University with a BS in General Agriculture. Alan worked 20 years in the fertilizer industry in Pullman before becoming the Latah County Weed Superintendent. Alan loves working with landowners to help them get their weed issues under control, and he is on the Board of Directors for the Idaho Noxious Weed Control Association representing northern Idaho.
