

INPS White Pine Chapter Conservation Projects 2025

Saturday, March 22, 2025 12pm-3pm, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Help UI Conservation Biology Club members identify native plants and weeds. Meet at the native planting on the walkway on UI campus on the north side of the Guy Wicks soccer fields (directly south of Tri-State but across the highway and Paradise Creek, then west on the paved pathway. Here is a GPS location: <https://maps.app.goo.gl/myMCQZMExcW2qGn9>.

Saturday, March 29, 2025 10am-12pm, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Help high school and other volunteers with planting shrubs and sowing native plant seeds at the “Dogleg” at Harvest Park, led by Mark Heinlein. Meet at Harvest Park (north of and across Southview from the Moscow Police Station located at 155 Southview Ave.). The site is steep and has many non-native grasses. Bring gloves and soil knife or other planting and digging tool.

Saturday, April 12, 2025 12pm-3pm, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Help UI Conservation Biology Club members with planting native plants and sowing native plant seeds. Meet at the native planting on the walkway on UI campus on the north side of the Guy Wicks soccer fields (directly south of Tri-State but across the highway and Paradise Creek, then west on the paved pathway. Here is a GPS location: <https://maps.app.goo.gl/myMCQZMExcW2qGn9>.

Saturday, April 26, 2025 12pm-3pm, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Help UI Conservation Biology Club members with planting native plants and sowing native plant seeds. Meet at the native planting on the walkway on UI campus on the north side of the Guy Wicks soccer fields (directly south of Tri-State but across the highway and Paradise Creek, then west on the paved pathway. Here is a GPS location: <https://maps.app.goo.gl/myMCQZMExcW2qGn9>.

May 20, 2025 9am-noon, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Stage Memorial Plantings Weeding led by Penny Morgan. Meet at Idler’s Rest parking area for work on north side of parking lot and along the Meadow View and Mountain View trails 0.1 miles from the parking area. Bring gloves and weeding tools.

May 31, 2025 9-11 am, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Stage Memorial Plantings Weeding led by Penny Morgan; will be done before the Dedication Ceremony and Celebration to be led by the Palouse Land Trust later that day). Meet at Idler’s Rest parking area for work on north side of parking lot and along the Meadow View and Mountain View trails 0.1 miles from the parking area. Bring gloves and weeding tools.

June 15, 2025 9-11am, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Help UI Conservation Biology Club members by weeding native planting. Meet at the native planting on the walkway on UI campus on the north side of the Guy Wicks soccer fields (directly south of Tri-State but across the highway and Paradise Creek, then west on the paved pathway. Bring gloves and soil knife or other weeding tools. Here is a GPS location: <https://maps.app.goo.gl/myMCQZMExcW2qGn9>.

June 28, 2025 9am-6pm, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Weeding voucher garden and then seeing the Palouse Prairie in bloom at Sublime Point in McCroskey State Park. Gather at 9am on north side of Rosauer’s parking lot on N Main Street in Moscow, then carpool and travel to McCroskey State Park. Bring gloves, soil knife or other weeding tools, and your enthusiasm. Weeding is for the voucher garden of Palouse Prairie native plants for McCroskey State Park.

July 20, 2025 8-10am, CONSERVATION PROJECT: Help UI Conservation Biology Club members by weeding native planting. Meet at the native planting on the walkway on UI campus on the north side of the Guy Wicks soccer fields (directly south of Tri-State but across the highway and Paradise Creek, then west on the paved pathway. Bring gloves and soil knife or other weeding tools. Here is a GPS location: <https://maps.app.goo.gl/myMCQZMExcW2qGn9>.