

Event #1: Come join us on Saturday, August 13, 2005 for an outing at Hobo Cedar Grove Botanical Area, near Clarkia, ID. Juanita Lichthardt, past president of the White Pine Chapter, a botany educator and consultant, will be our guide and fern identification our motive as we walk through the old-growth cedar stand. We will have the opportunity to review the proposed additional acreage to the Grove. Bring your favorite plant ID guide, hand lens, binoculars and friends, and join us for a ramble in the Grove – and beyond to Marble Creek if time allows. Meet at 8:00 a.m. at Eastside Marketplace parking lot by the marquee. We will carpool, returning about 5:00 p.m. Don't forget lunch and water!

Event #2: We will host our Annual Fall Potluck on Sunday, September 11, 2005 at 2:00 p.m. at Laird Park. Bring a dish to share, beverage, friends and family, and join other members for an afternoon of relaxation and reflection. Further details will follow.
