

Wenaha River Canyon

Field Trip near Troy, northeastern Oregon

2007 Fred Rabe photo

Saturday, April 10, 8 am to 5 pm

Carpool from Eastside Marketplace in Moscow

Accompany botanists Pam Brunfeld & Emily Poor, aquatic ecologist Fred Rabe, & conservationist David Mildrexler on a leisurely, short hike through a scenic, remote valley.

Glimpse bighorn sheep, identify diverse spring blooms, sample macroinvertebrates, & learn about regional wildland issues. Please bring sun- & water-resistant clothing & boots, lunch, & water.

Visit www.whitepineinps.org for more information

Co-sponsored by the Idaho Native Plant Society White Pine Chapter, Hells Canyon Preservation Council, & Friends of the Clearwater